

MANITOBA INSTITUTE
FOR PATIENT SAFETY

Leading Practices Webinar Series

September 30, 2020

1:00 – 2:00 P.M. (CDT)

Register at

mips.ca/news---events.html

Topic: Teamwork in Safety

Learning outcomes include:

- Review TeamSTEPPS to support interprofessional teamwork and patient safety improvement.
- Review shared experiences and examples of collaborative care to apply to one's local experience
- Identify one actional activity learned

PRESENTERS

Dr. Jeff Klassen
Emergency Physician

Dr. Klassen is an emergency physician at St. Boniface Hospital in Winnipeg, has in the course of his career been involved in multiple initiatives aimed at improving teamwork & safety culture within the WRHA and the University of Manitoba. This includes work with the TeamSTEPPS Winnipeg initiative.

Heather Orellana
Manager of Patient Care

Heather is the Manager of Patient Care in various depts. at Victoria General Hospital. With a surgical background in nursing, she works as Director of Surgery, Anesthesia, Respiratory & Diagnostic Imaging.

Wendy Gobert
Clinical Nurse

Wendy is a Clinical Resource Nurse in PACU. Starting in an Emergency Department, worked in ICU for 15 years. Transitioned to Post Anesthesia Care unit for 12 years.

About Teamwork in Safety - Effective teamwork is essential for the delivery of high quality, safe patient care in all healthcare settings. Healthcare teams are often composed of a variety of disciplines, resulting in a rich combination of expertise, knowledge and skills. Just like sports teams, interdisciplinary teams, or "collaborative care" teams, need to define and review strategies to help the team meet its goals and function in the best way possible.